Chris Shinnick is the Lead Pastor of Manna Church, a two year old congregation that gathers over 500 people each Sunday at Niceville High School. He loves teaching God's Word, building up young men, helping families thrive, and equipping people to change their world. Chris earned his Master's of Divinity Degree from Denver Seminary in 2010, and has always been passionate about combining sports and faith. He also played football at the University of Hawaii, where he earned Academic All-American Honors in 1997.

Chris' father, Don Shinnick, played 13 seasons of professional football for the Baltimore Colts and also coached with various NFL teams for an additional 13 years. Don Shinnick is enshrined in the FCA Hall of Champions. Chris' brother Pete is the Head Football Coach of the University of West Florida.

Chris met his wife Becky in Hawaii and they have been married 15 years. They live in Niceville with their three children: Sebastian (10), Evangeline (7) and Emmett (4).
